

Tanya Marguerite

Program Administrator

Tanya joined CCP in 2015 and is responsible for working with the Executive Director on fiscal management and accounting. She also assists with operations, fund development, and contract management responsibilities. Tanya brings over 20 years of experience in the public, nonprofit sector with more than 12 years at the Public Health Institute. Tanya has a background in nonprofit capacity building, community health, and youth development.

Before joining CCP, her work as Assistant Director of CCP's sister organization - the Center for Civic Partnerships - included leading their organizational development team and programmatic activities as well as lead responsibilities for fiscal, operations, and resource development needs. Tanya brings this breadth and depth of experience to CCP where she leads financial and operational management and information systems support. In addition, Tanya provides programmatic lead on CCP's training and technical assistance programs on sustainability planning and implementation as well as convening and group facilitation support on workforce and community development issues.

Tanya has a Master's degree in Public Administration from University of Southern California and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from the University of California, Davis. When not at work, Tanya enjoys volunteering at her children's schools and serving as a Girl Scout Troop leader. She loves reading, puzzles, and spending time in nature.
